Zephaniah 2:4-15

Do you think we have the right to tell others about Jesus? Why or why not?

Do you find others think we should keep our opinions to ourselves? If so, how does that affect you?

Do you sometimes find that you are fearful of mentioning Christ because of how others will react? What lies behind this fear?

Do you think being surrounded by unbelievers affects our confidence as Christians?

If we have a clearer sense of Jesus's kingship over all the earth how would that impact our confidence in evangelism?

If we have a clearer sense of God's 'awesome' qualities how would that impact our confidence in evangelism?

Why is pride such a terrible sin? Why does it create such a huge barrier between us and God?

How can self-centeredness affect our relationship with God?

What do we learn about a proud, self orientated, attitude from the Assyrian nation in this passage (v13-16)?

How can history (both Biblical and post Biblical) help us to gain confidence in the gospel?
