

Zephaniah 3:1-13 Discussion Questions

Does it really matter if we can tell the true church apart from a false church? Why or why not?

Does it matter if we can tell true belief in individuals apart from superficial religion and hypocrisy?

Zephaniah describes a mixed situation: Both his true people and his false people in Jerusalem. They were to wait for God to act in judgement (v8).

How should this perspective affect our view of ourselves

How should this perspective affect our view of others

Looking at the 4 marks of the remnant (God's true people), how do we measure up? Use this table to think it through:
